THE CARILLON

From Our Lead Pastor

"IN ALL THIS I HAVE GIVEN YOU AN EXAMPLE THAT BY SUCH WORK WE MUST SUPPORT THE WEAK, REMEMBERING THE WORDS OF THE LORD JESUS, FOR HE HIMSELF SAID, 'IT IS MORE BLESSED TO GIVE THAN TO RECEIVE'" (ACTS 20:35 NRSV).

Dear Friends:

According to our Lord Jesus, the generous life is a blessed life. Of course, generosity is so much more than being generous with money, though it certainly includes that. The source of radical generosity is a Gospel-transformed heart that has received the costly grace of God. As humble recipients of God's grace we can be agents of life-giving, generous grace to those around us.

For a three-week period in November, we will be exploring the responsibilities and benefits of generous living. Join us in worship starting November 4 as we begin our new series called The Generous Life.

On November 11 we will have the opportunity to express how we may wish to offer our time, talents, and spiritual gifts in service to the Lord. Those who have not yet completed the annual Time and Talent survey will be given some time on this Sunday to do so.

At the conclusion of this series on The Generous Life, we will have the opportunity to make personal commitments of our financial offerings to God through our church in the coming year. We will dedicate these commitments in the worship service on Celebration Sunday November 18, 2018. This service will also include a re-dedication of the building after the recent renovations and in keeping with the 90th anniversary of the dedication of the original building (November 18, 1928). A special Celebration Lunch will follow this service.

Yours in Christ,

Jeff

From Our Associate Pastor

As I write this the fall colors are starting to be beautiful. By the time you read this, probably most of the leaves will be gone from the trees. We will be wondering what kind of winter it will be. How many days will be super-snowy? When is the first Sunday in advent? What do I want for Christmas? How will we do it all?

First, though, we stop and give thanks. The Bible encourages us to always be thankful people. I'm going to keep a Gratitude Journal in November. It's already on my calendar! Sometimes I forget spiritual practices in my haste to accomplish or, my lazy wasting of time. I'm so grateful every day that God hasn't forgotten to care about me.

Now thank we all our God,

With heart and hands and voices..

The one eternal God,

Whom heaven and earth adore,

the God who was, and is,

and shall be evermore.

(Glory to God #643)

NOTES FROM THE OCTOBER MEETING OF SESSION

Carl McCune, Clerk of Session

A motion came from the Ad Hoc Personnel Task Force to increase the Terms of Call for Rev. Pat Weatherwax by $4,000 as a one-time payment due to temporary assumption of additional duties during Pastor Jeff's illness. The total cost to the Church will be $5,480 (which includes Board of Pension dues for medical and retirement benefits). The motion carried and a special meeting of the Congregation will be called for November 4, 2018 for the congregation to vote on this proposal. A resolution of appreciation prevailed for the work of the Task Force members: Tom Cole, David Lucas, Mary Maley, Jean Parker and Bill Winslow.

The Board Reorganization Task Force brought a report which showed how the church could function with the current responsibilities of the Board of Trustees transferring to the Session. Four new committees of Session would be created: Generosity Ministry Team, Personnel Committee, Property Committee and Finance Committee. While this is being studied by Trustees and Ruling Elders, the Task Force will continue to work on a proposed change to the Church Bylaws.

The Safety Steering Committee announced that a training by the Battle Creek Police Department is scheduled for November 10, 2018 from 9:00 – 1:00 and urged participation by church staff, leaders, ushers, greeters, Sunday School teachers and any other interested members of the Congregation. Those interested should respond to the church office by November 4.

THE BENEVOLENCE COMMITTEE & SALLY'S KITCHEN

First Presbyterian along with 20 similar organizations sponsor "Sally's Kitchen", the Soup Kitchen of Battle Creek located at the Salvation Army building at 400 Capital Avenue N.W. Sally's kitchen serves lunch Monday through Friday from 11:30AM to 1:00PM and Saturday from noon to 1:30PM. On the third Thursday of each month, First Pres purchases, cooks and serves. Our cooking crew begins around 9:00AM to prepare spaghetti, bread, vegetable, fruit, coleslaw, dessert and milk. Then our serving crew works until 1:00PM. Other organizations do the same on twenty other days of the month. On the days that are not covered by these groups, the Salvation Army kitchen crew prepares the food and various groups such as ours serve the meals. We always serve on the fifth Thursday, when there are five weeks in a month, and normally one to three other days. From January through August of this year, 30,073 lunches have been served at Sally's Kitchen by these groups combined.

Annual Presbyterian Women Christmas Tea is December 1st

Our annual PW Christmas Tea will take place on Saturday, December 1st, at 2PM in the church Sanctuary. The theme for this year is "God's Promise: God With Us as Emanuel." We have two wonderful guest musicians for our program; Alexis Star and Ramberto Bastell.

Alexis is a local singer who is a private voice instructor. She is a native of Albion and a graduate of Western Michigan University with a major in Music Education. She teaches through her private studio, Starkissimo, and the Gull Lake Homeschool Partnership. She previously taught at the Community Music School in Battle Creek, Marshall, Albion and Vicksburg. She is active in the community serving as a section leader and soloist in the Battle Creek Community Chorus and the St. Thomas Episcopal Church Choir. She also is a member of the Battle Creek Master Singers.

Ramberto was born in a small town in southern Puerto Rico. He experienced many styles of Caribbean music as he was growing up. Later, he added American and British rock music to his musical tastes. He moved to Battle Creek in 2006 and met other musicians in the area. He taught guitar and bass at the Community Music School for two years. He has a style of playing the guitar that incorporates many special techniques.

We invite everyone to come and enjoy this unique program of voice and guitar music. We encourage you to stay after the performance to enjoy refreshments in the Parlor.

This year's Thanksgiving Special Offering goes to the Charitable Union of Battle Creek. Their purpose is to contribute to human dignity. They provide clothing, bedding and small household items at no charge and connect people to resources in the community.

Please consider making a monetary gift to this valuable community resource.

REFLECTIONS OF YESTERYEAR

By Martin Ashley, Historian of First Presbyterian Church Battle Creek

The sanctuary in 1928 upon the dedication of the build-

The month of November has a special place in the history of First Presbyterian Church. It was on Thanksgiving Day of 1927 that we laid the Cornerstone of what would become our present house of worship. Just a year later, during a week-long series of services starting on November 18, we formally dedicated our new Norman Gothic edifice.

The Sanctuary of our new church included a “beautiful chancel of carved oak, rising in a series of elevations, at the bottom of which is the communion table with the seats for the elders. The next elevation is the pulpit platform with seats for the ministers, above this are the choir loft and the organ console. Built in the great arch to the right and the left is the great Skinner organ, and thence up to the roof a lattice work of carved wood furnishes an exquisite blending with the ornamental pipes.”

Through the years changes were made to the chancel, updating and enlarging it to accommodate new styles of worship as well as an expanded music program.

Our Sanctuary also saw additions of stained glass medallions in the windows, padded pews in the center section and later, wheel chair accessible seating.

By 2011, we started seriously looking once again at the improvement of our Sanctuary, including redesigning our Chancel to allow more flexible use of the existing space. By 2014, plans were completed and construction was started on an enlarged Chancel platform. On November 23 of that year, we celebrated its completion with the first of several services of dedication showing the different ways to utilize the new Chancel to enhance our worship experience. Since that time we have moved forward with what you may call “Phase 2”, which included staining and repair of our pews to match the Chancel, replacement of the flooring underneath the pews, and completely painting the entire Sanctuary, including the ceiling and towers.

We arrive again in the month of November, ready to celebrate the completion of our refurbished worship space. We have much to be proud of, just as our “forefathers” did ninety years ago when they dedicated their new church. Let us rejoice in this festive time as we gather to stop and admire the work that has been accomplished and rededicate our Sanctuary to the worship and service of Almighty God.

The following excerpt was taken from the November 19, 1928 issue of the Battle Creek Enquirer & News and tells of the dedication services for our church building that were held the day before,

“The dedication of a church is to any community a notable event. The church, the single institution founded by Christ, is the greatest service organization known to men, all other service organizations drawing their ideals from that. The dedication of the First Presbyterian Church in Battle Creek yesterday -- a city known the world over for its food products and its experimentation and demonstration in the field of physical health -- was especially notable.

The sanctuary in November 2018 after refurbishing

Dr. George N. Luccock, Wooster, O., director of two great theological seminaries in the Presbyterian denomination made the above statements in the dedicatory sermon at the dedication exercises at the new First Presbyterian Church yesterday morning. Together with other notables in the church world, Dr. Luccock came to Battle Creek for the event. He preached at the 11 o'clock services when the new main auditorium, seating 1,200 persons and the church proper were dedicated. His subject was "Struggling Up and Staying Up."

Dr. Luccock termed the church - the church in general - the single dependable basis for society and the state. All other institutions, he said, divide the family and the community in separate interests. The church brings them together and holds them together.

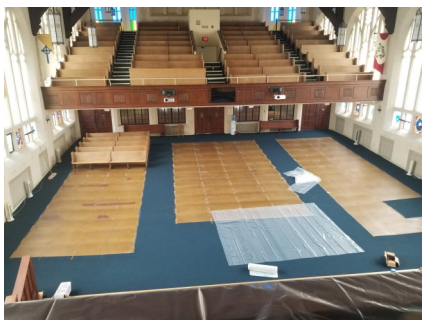

Three great services were held yesterday as part of the dedication ceremonies which will extend through this week, ending with the Thanksgiving service next Sunday morning. At the community service, at 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon when the church took its place in the city, there were 500 people present, following the attendance of 1,200 in the morning. At popular services held last night, when Dr. Luccock spoke again, and music was furnished by the Community Choral club under the direction of Malden H. Serns, there were 700 persons present.

The services yesterday at the new church were spectacular. People began to throng to the new church for the dedication services in the morning long before the service hour and filled the auditorium, main floor and balcony, entirely, as well as the narthex, stairs and every available space. The new auditorium, used for the first time, provided a beautiful setting. Floral decorations, gifts of florists, manufacturers and friends of the church and its members were profuse. The procession of elders, trustees, the building committee which handled the financing of the church, and supervised its construction and furnishing, and the presiding ministers, while the choir sang the processional hymn, was impressive.

The services were climaxed by the ceremony in which the congregation and the Rev. A. T. Tomshany, pastor, pronounced the words of dedication, with declaration by the pastor, and the keys of the new building were formally handed over by Verner W. Main, chairman of the building committee to Eugene H. McKay, chairman of the board of trustees.

In his declaration The Rev. Mr. Tomshany said:

"For us of this church, this is a glorious day. For today we see the realization of our fondest hopes. Today we have the answer of our fervent prayers. Today we see the crystallization of our endeavors. All this, because today, we dedicate this magnificent structure - a fitting instrument with which to worship God - a conspicuous and splendid monument in our already beautiful city - an eloquent testimony of the Presbyterians in the city of Battle Creek to their love, loyalty and devotion to religion and to God."

Pictured here are different stages of this year's sanctuary refurbishing. All pews were removed and refinished to match the darker wood of the chancel, a special crane was employed to reach the 60' high ceilings and walls for painting and cleaning of the beams. Once the flooring was replaced and the pews reinstalled, the piano and our great Spinner organ were returned and retuned. Finally the carpets and windows were cleaned, pews were restocked and dusted, and a final sound check was performed.

NOVEMBER 18 1928

The week of November 18, 1928 saw dedication ceremonies for the newly completed First Presbyterian Church building in Battle Creek. More than 2,200 gathered at three services as our Norman Gothic house of worship “took its place in the city”. The “Reflections of Yesteryear” insert written by our church historian, Martin Ashley tells the story of that original dedication.

Now 90 years later, with the completion of our sanctuary restoration, we will gather for a rededication of our church and a Celebration Sunday on November 18th. Following this special worship service, there will be a luncheon in Fellowship Hall to continue our celebration. Please RSVP to the church office.

CELEBRATION Sunday

First Presbyterian Church exists to share God's love and grace with all people and celebrate the truth of Jesus Christ.
